

Getting Started with Computer Control

Computer Control is a software application that allows individuals to control and navigate a computer with only their eyes. Computer Control allows the individual to control the mouse or keyboard through eye gaze. This document provides instructions to help users get started with the Computer Control application.

The Computer Control software is under continuous improvement so there may be slight differences between the software and the training materials.